

Jeffrey Klein

March 4, 1944 - September 8, 2024

A beloved musician, entertainer, and composer, Jeff began playing the piano by ear at age 5, and it became his life calling. He played at various venues across the country and produced 13 CD's. His charismatic personality, engaging storytelling ability, and magical touch on the piano keys won him hundreds of fans, many of whom became lifelong friends. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

He is survived by his loving wife, Cynthia; one daughter, Karen Ruiz; two grandchildren, James and Justine; one sister, Mischell Huerta; and one niece, Remy.

Tribute Wall

BG

“ I traveled back to So Dakota three times after getting out of the Air Force. I met Mr Kline all three times back. twice in deadwood and once at the 1880 town. We all admired him and loved talking to him and hearing him sing. RIP

Bob Ganno - January 12, 2025 at 09:12 AM

LP

“ Loved sharing with Mr Klein (The Piano Man) stories of South Dakota and listening to him play at the Jacaranda Hotel in Avon Park! We will miss his smile and beautiful music ❤️

Lori Parr - October 21, 2024 at 11:27 PM

AH

“ You were a true friend. Gone but never forgotten. We love you my friend!! Sincerely your friend and stylist. Annette Hebert

Annette Hebert - October 11, 2024 at 10:31 AM