

Linda Joerger

February 10, 1955 - August 16, 2025

Linda Joerger, a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished grandmother, and treasured friend, passed away peacefully with her family by her side on August 16, 2025, at the age of 70. Born on February 10, 1955, Linda lived a life rooted in love, family, and simple joys, leaving behind a legacy of kindness and strength that will never be forgotten.

Linda was happiest when surrounded by her family. She is survived by her children: Christian Joerger and his wife Tammylynn of Lakeland, Florida, along with their children Bethany, Layla, and Jase; Paul Joerger and his wife Natasha of Pine Bush, New York, and their children Michael and Madison; and her daughter Michelle Joerger of Pennsylvania and her daughter Kayla. Her grandchildren were her pride and joy, and she embraced every moment of being “Grandma.” Whether it was attending school events, sharing laughter, or simply spending quiet time together, Linda poured her heart into creating lasting memories with them.

One of her greatest delights was the special bond she shared with her granddaughter Layla. They spent countless weekends together, enjoying movie nights, laughter, and the kind of comfort that only comes from unconditional love. Linda also had a soft spot for her “fur grandkids,” who brought her endless joy and companionship.

Beyond her devotion to her family, Linda had a generous heart that extended into her community. She found purpose and fulfillment in volunteering at the local food pantry, where she gave her time and compassion to those in need. Her willingness to help others reflected her deep kindness and the importance she placed on caring for people, both within and beyond her family.

Linda’s life was not without loss, but she carried herself with grace and courage. She is now reunited in eternal peace with her beloved husband, Christian, and their grandson, Louie. The thought of them together again brings comfort to those she leaves behind.

Those who knew Linda will remember her as a woman with a gentle spirit, a warm smile, and a heart that never stopped giving. She had a way of making everyone feel welcome, whether through a kind word, a shared meal, or simply her steady presence. She lived her life devoted to her family, and her love continues to ripple through them.

Linda’s story is one of love, resilience, service, and family. Though her presence will be deeply missed, her memory will live on in the laughter of her grandchildren, the love of her children, and the countless lives she touched along the way.
